he Knights Hospitaller of the Temple netimes known as the Knights of St. John, and also as the Knights of the Sovreign Order of Malta. As such he enjoyed a place in Parliament, not only among the prelates-he was bound by vows of cellbacy-but also among the great barons, in right of the lay barony of Torpichen, which was comprised in the property of the order. Sir James was led by his father's close intimacy with John Knox, the Reformer, to become a convert to the doctrines of the Reformed Church, and, resigning his ecclesiastical office and pos sessions to the crown in 1564, received immediately thereon from Mary Queen of scots a grant confirming to him, his heirs and assigns the lands and the baronies be longing to the order in Scotland. He therefore continued to bear, no longer as prior of the Order of St. John, but in his ewn the title of Lord Torpichen, Unmindful of the vow of celibacy, which he had been compelled to give on joining the maise, but, dying without issue, his title of so freely circulated of late concerning Lord Torpichen passed to his brother's son wholesale elevations to the House of Since then the barony of Torpichen has descended in the male line, direct, the present peer being the twelfth since the reign of Queen Mary.

Of course, the history of the Sandilands family, of which Lord Torpichen is the John, in the days of Mary Queen of Scots, must have been able to show at least eight generations of exclusively noble ancestry, both on the father's and mother's genealogical qualifications of this kind being then, as to-day, indispensable the Lairds of Sandilands, in Douglasdale, were already in possession of Sandiland in the thirtcenth century, and obtained the lands of Calder, near Edinburgh, which are still owned by the present Lord Torpichen, early in the fourteenth century one of the Lairds of Sandilands and Calder married Princess Joan of Scotland. daughter of King Robert II. The present Lord Torpichen divorced his wife, a daugher of Lieutenant General Charles E. Gordon, some twenty years ago, and his eldest son, James, master of Torpichen, sucbed to fever eighteen months ago while acting as assistant commissioner and administrator of Nyassaland, in Africa, With regard to the other new representative peer, the young Earl of Leven and Starr Jameson. Melville, he came into the public eye prominently a year or so ago through his presentation to the late King of a sum of some $150,000 for use in the arrangement of a chapel of the Knights of the Scottish Order of the Thistle, which is | In recognition of his services in consummer in the presence of the King and

Lord Leven's father was a well known figure here in America, and few members of the British peerage possessed a more exrensive acquaintance with people and conditions in the United States. He was "best gest Anglo-American banking houses in London, namely, those of Melville, Evans & Co., and of Williams, Deacon & Co., the latter having succeeded to the business of the great firm of Williams, Deacon, Lagreat role in international finance during tack on the House of Lords. the early years of Queen Victoria's reign

Lord Leven's grandfather, the eleventh earl, married the daughter of Henry Thornton, M. P., the friend of Wilberforce, of Zachary Macaulay, and of Gladstone in his younger years. Indeed, the Thornton villa at Clapham, so graphically portrayed by Lord Beaconsfield in the opening chapters of the novel left unfinished at his death, was the headquarters of that soclety of wealthy pictists constituting the pillars of the Exeter Hall school, who led the abolitionist movement in England, and who for a time exercised a most powerful influence on English politics. Henry Thornton's "Family Prayers" had a wide vogue about fifty years ago, and proved a source of large revenue to the Lord Leven's family is a very ancient one. Melville is not only its patronymic but likewise the title of one of its peerages, the present head of the family being fourteenth Earl of Leven and eleventh Farl of Melville. The Melvilles flourished in the reign of David I. William the Lion, and of Malcolm IV, one of them being the latter's Lord Justiciary of Scotland. The first Lord Melville of the present creation was the ambassador sent by King James VI of Scotland from Scotland to England in 1587 to plead with Queen Elizaboth for the life of Mary Queen of Scots. MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

AMBASSADOR'S LETTER HELPS

German Noblemen Pass Customs Officials Easily and Go West.

Among the passengers who arrived yesmen who have come here on their way to Mexico to hunt big game. They brought over some fine modern guns and other hunting equipment, which they will take out of the country on their return to Germany, Canada and the United States. Most of the baggage was sent through to Mexico in bond.

presented a letter from Ambassador Hill to be deferred until the coronation, when there the customs officials, which helped them get away on an afternoon train for the

ALPHA TAU OMEGA ELECTS

Fraternity Chooses Officers for the Present Year.

Atlanta, Jan. 1.-John N. Van der Vries, province chief, of Lawrence, Kan., was elected worthy grand chief of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at the final session of the twenty-second biennial congress here Yesterday. Other officers elected are: Worthy grand chaplain, Bishop Theodore

D. Bration, Jackson, Miss.; worthy grand keeper of the exchequer, G. D. Ellsworth, Washington; worthy high chancellor, Shepard Bryan, Atlanta; high council, George Maguire, Worcester, Mass.; congress orator, damaged the cupola of the mausoleum of Judge Reland Braggott, Dayton, Ohio, and Sultan Orkhan Ghazi. No lives were lost, congress poet, Harry H. Harman, Atlanta, but many houses were partly wrecked. The new officers were installed just before adjournment, and the selection of the place for the 1912 meeting was left to the high council. NEW YORK FROM THE SUBURBS.

That New York proposition to add gongs to automobile hours is calculated to increase the jumping record on Broadway.

Pittsburg Dispatch.

New York does not let up the least bit in her determination to become the world's biggest city. Success to her, say we. At the approaching session of the Legis-At the approach and the still bigger by annexing Mount Vernon, New Rochelle, by annexing Mount Vernon, New Rochelle, by annexing Mount Vernon, New Rochelle, the Yorkers, Pelham and East Chester, the Yorkers and made part of the great city in chester and made part of the great city in chester and made part of the great city in chester and made part of the great city in the country wasted in the force of the great city in the country wasted in legal residence in some place just across the state line to avoid the New York inheritance tax, which appears to them to be too much like punishment after death leves to dodging taxes, it appears to their lives to dodging taxes, it appears to them to live to dodging taxes, it appears to them to live to dodging taxes, it appears to them to live to dodging taxes, it appears to them to live to dodging taxes, it appears to them.

We figure that the energy wasted in training dogs to perform on the vaude-ville stage would turn ten million spindles and light a dozen cities the size of New York,—Topeka Capital.

BANK MANAGER IN JAIL

Toronto, Jan. 1.—W. R. Travers, general manager of the wrecked Farmers' Bank Two bomb throwing colsodes in New York City last Sunday. Nothing unusual about that—might suggest the comment that there were only two? But they are that there were only two? But they are boile assert that they were due to a boile assert that they were fulled to the bank.

He was unable to obtain ball and spent the headquarters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at No. 25 Versey street.

Doctors and Philanthropists.

Government Withheld Honors While House of Lords Agitation Is Unsettled.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

London, Jan. 1 .- No new peers! This is the most striking feature of the New Year honor list, and it effectually puts he married Janet Murray, of Pol- an end to the stories which have been Lords as a foretaste of the swapping process with which the government has een credited.

Though the list, on the whole, is free from any sensational event, it contains holds and the court personnel presented goes very much further back than a number of features of general interthe Reformation. For the first lord, in est. Charles Wright Macara, president order to have been prior of the Order of of the Cotton Spinners' Federation, and one of the most influential Free Traders to be received were the wearers of the Col-

William Abraham, Member of Parliament, better known by his bardle title of "Mabon," who began life as a pit of Italian diplomatists and statesmen. They full knighthood of the order. In fact, boy and has long been a prominent figure as a labor leader in South Wales. becomes a Privy Councillor, and is and Queen speaking to and shaking hands thereby entitled to the prefix of right with each. Special interest attached to the > Several Liberal ex-members of Parliament receive consolation prizes in the form of knighthoods, while rewards also have gone to active supporters of the government at St. Stephens's.

of Connaught's visit to South Africa. Dr. Jameson, by accepting a baronetcy, effaces his individuality, in some measure for it will be hard to identify "Dr. Jim" under his new title of Sir Leander

The absence of General Botha's name from the honors list is easily explained. It is an open secret that he was offered but declined a title.

completed, and is to be consecrated to nection with the North Atlantic coast the service of the order some time this fisheries arbitration Lord Robson is the Order of St. Michael and St. George, daughter, Miss Louise Taft. and Allen B. Aylesworth, the Canadian Minister of Justice, a knight commander of the same order.

Literature and the drama have been man" at the wedding in New York of Miss passed over, but medicine and surgery Consuelo Yznaga to the late Duke of Man- are well represented, and music, enchester, and was head of two of the big- gineering and commerce also are recognized.

While the list generally is somewhat disappointing, the failure to create any Liberal peers will undoubtedly bouchere, Thornton & Co., which played a strengthen Premier Asquith in his at-

> [By The Associated Press.] London, Jan. I.-Much surprise will be casioned by the absence from the New Year honor list, issued to-night, of any new peerages. The political prophets had predicted an unusually large list of peerages, Haldane, Secretary for War, and others having been mentioned. Some Conservative papers have talked of the appointment of on January 13, announces as one of the M. S. McLellan, which will open, probas many as twenty or thirty new peers. The omission is susceptible of two posluctant to recommend the creation of peers ers," written by Theodore Kremer and pro- Theatre. Their number now is thirty-two, house, No. 217 West 126th street, yester- juncheon was served by the women memwhile the difficult question relating to the duced by A. H. Woods, under whose man- and they are bound to Havana. Charles day morning from heart failure, aggra- bers of the congregation following the af- WALKER-December 39, at her resident following the af- WALKER-December 39, at her resident following the af- was former for natned unsettled, Doubt- agement less many Unionists will jump at the con- way than Third avenue. Mr. Frohman will when they are capable of playing in Eng- sixty-two years old and was born in Hart-King, but it is considered more reasonable Woods in the direction of rehearsals. to suppose that the government recognized the futility of creating new peers while will play the heroine, Alice Stuart; Amelia woman, and D. Capelli, the leading man. ance on Saturday night in vaudeville at the question of the drastic reform of the Bingham, who will appear as Bettina, the upper chamber, with the possible aboit- Queen, and Bijou Fernandez, to whom the six privy councillors, the most notable of the hero, George Stuart; Tyrone Power as at 4 o'clock on Christmas morning. master of Elibank, the chief Liberal whip, son as the genteel heavy, Harry Arling-The most likely to strike public attention ton, and William Collier as the comedian. among the new knights are Joseph Lyons, Ikey Isaacs. Hale Hamilton will play the a well known caterer, for services in sup- police sergeant and Walter Jones the poporting the territorial movement, and Henry J. Wood, the orchestral conductor. Sidney Colvin, keeper of prints and drawings in the British Museum, was also knighted.

Otherwise the list is not of striking interday from Antwerp on the Red Star liner doctors and others connected with philan-will also go on tour. His first play will Lapland were Count F. von Blücher and thropic work. The long list of promotions be "The Seven Sisters," in which Miss Lau-Baron G. von Bredow, two German noble- in the Order of St. Michael and St. George rotte Taylor will also be featured. include the name of George P. Gibbons, chairman of the Canadian section of the the treaty on the boundary waters of Lellan drama Lena Ashwell is to be seen

> London, Jan. 2 .- The "Daily Chronicle" suggests that the creation of peerages will

PORTUGAL'S FORMER QUEEN ILL

Dowager Maria Pia Suffering from student and exponent of Shakespeare. Nervous Troubles.

Naples, Jan. 1.-The King has sent his personal medical adviser to Naples to visit been suffering from a nervous condition, due to the recent events in Portugal.

Heavy Shock at Brusa Partly Wrecks

Many Houses. Constantinople, Jan. 1.-A strong earth shock at Brusa, in Asia Minor, yesterday

JEWS LOSE A CHAMPION

M. Karauloff, Prominent Member of the Russian Douma, Dead.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 1.-M. Karauloff, a Constitutional Democrat and one of the most influential members of the Doume, died to-day from meningitis. He will be a great loss to the Jewish dissident causes, of which he was champion,

LOCAL OPTION IN ONTARIO

Question To-day.

Ottawa, Jan. 1.-Nine municipalities of Eastern Ontario will vote to-morrow on reduction to a minimum. local option. The campaign has been a spirited one, and the results are awaited be held in Beethoven Hall, No. 216 5th with interest. The towns voting are street, on Wednesday.

NO PEERS IN HONOR LIST KAISER TALKS OF HERO FUND CARNEGIE MEETS BRYCE

Topic at Reception in Berlin.

Berlin, Jan. 1.-Andrew Carnegie's gift for Rewards Go to Politicians, the establishment of a fund for German heroes was the leading topic of the Emperor's New Year reception, at which the American Ambassador, David Jayne Hill, and other members of the diplomatic corps MUCH SURPRISE IN LONDON and the members of the Cabinet were present. The Emperor has sent a second letter of gratitude to Mr. Carnegie. During the day the Emperor promoted Generals Count von Schlieffen, Count Bock und Polack and Baron von der Goltz to the rank of field marshal.

Gereral von Lindequist and General von Plessen, adjutant of the Emperor, also were premoted to be field marshals.

RECEPTION AT QUIRINAL King, Queen and Royal Children of Italy Greeted by Subjects.

Rome, Jan. I .- New Year's is one of the usiest days at the Quirinal, it being the official day for greetings to the sovereigns. This morning the civil and military housetheir felicitations to the King, Queen and royal children. At 1 o'clock the reception of all the dignituries of the state began, lasting until late in the evening. The first in Lancashire, has been made a baronet. | lar of the Annunziata, who rank as cousins of the King, the most venerable at present being Marquis Visconti-Venosta, the doyer were followed by the representatives of the Senate and of the Chamber of Deputies, the Cabinet ministers and others, both King greetings of Mayor Nathan and his colleagues of the Municipal Council belonging to the extreme parties.

NEW YEAR'S AT THE CAPITAL There are some reminders of the Duke In Spite of Driving Rain President Taft Attended Church.

Washington, Jan. 1, New Year's Day was wet and dreary in Washington. A cold, driving rain began in the early morning and continued with a steadiness that kept every one indoors.

President Taft attended services at the Unitarian church this forenoon. He was accompanied by Mrs. Charles P. Taft, of incinnati. The President remained at the White House during the rainy afternoon and evening. He disposed of some corre spondence and dined with his family and ouse guests to-night. The guests include made a Knight of the Grand Cross of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft and their

RECEPTION IN LISBON

President of Portugal Greeted by Thousands-No Disorder in City.

Lisbon, Jan. 1.-The provisional govern-State Council House to-day. Thousands of citizens, officials and army and navy officers attended the reception and greeted President Braga and his colleagues. There

OLD PLAY'S UNUSUAL CAST Broadway Favorites to Present "Queen of the Highbinders."

Daniel Frohman, chairman of the comthe names of the Right Hon. Richard B. mittee which is arranging for the testi- has come back to America after ten years R. Mayer at the New Amsterdam Theatre novelties for that occasion a revival of a ably in Philadelphia, on February 1. once popular thriller. With an unusual sible explanations. Either the King would cast rehearsals will begin this week for again the band of Sicilian players which not sanction or Premier Asquith was rether the third act of "Queen of the Highbind-last season performed at the Broadway" clusion that the Prime Minister failed to have the use of the original production and lish, and to this end they have with them ford, Conn. In his younger days Mr. Webobtain the required guarantees from the the assistance of both Mr. Kremer and Mr. Miss M. E. Palmer, an English teacher, ster supported Booth and Barrett, and was

The cast includes Marguerite Clarke, who whom are Alexander William Murray, the villain, Kia Tong; Charles A. Steven-

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Daniel Frohman and Charles Cherry have entered into a contract by which the former assumes the management of the actor for terest. The rewards go to political work- three years. Mr. Cherry will appear at ers, officials of various kinds and many the Lyceum Theatre in new comedies and doctors and others connected with philan- will also go on tour. His first play will Liebler & Co. have arranged to make a local production of "Judith Zaraine" alwaterways commission, in connection with most immediately. In this C. M. S. Mcas the star, assisted by Charles Waldron, who appears in "The Fourth Estate." Miss Ellen Terry will make her farewell appearance in New York on the evening of Wednesday, January 18, at Carnegie Hall. She will interpret, with acting, many of hte famous feminine roles in Shakespeare, introducing each scene with characteristic mments drawn from her knowledge as special reference to those coined by the House of Savoy.

ITALY'S KING AN AUTHOR

Coins Just Issued.

The volume comprises 532 pages and 42 der to realize the large sum which sheets of illustrations. Half of the proceeds from the sale of the King's work will be devoted to benevolent institutions and half to the Italian Numismatic Society.

PANAMA "CABBIES" STRIKE Panama, Jan. 1.-All the foreign coach drivers in Panama went on strike to-day because of a restrictive municipal ordinance, recently adopted. The native coachmen insisted upon working, but the strikers would not permit them to do so. As a result there were many fights, in which police intervention became necessary.

CONFERENCE ON SAFETY DEVICES. The officers of the Central Federated colon have sent a circular to all its attillated unions drawing their attention to the Nine Municipalities Will Vote on the coming meeting of the Commission on Safety Devices to arrange for an investigation into the causes of industrial accidents with a view to their prevention or A conference of the interested trades will

SUMNER MEETING ON JANUARY 6.

Mrs. Henry Villard and the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise will be the principal speakers at the Charles Sumner memorial meeting in this city on January 8, plans for which were made public yesterday.

Welcomes Returning Ambassador-Predicts Taft in 1912

CEDRIC AND CARMANIA IN

Sir John Harrington Among the Passengers to Arrive New Year's Day.

The Cunard liner Carmania, the last steamship to reach Quarantine in the old year and the first one out in the new nevertheless was beaten to her pier yesterday morning by the White Star liner Cedric. The fog which preceded the afternoon's rain hung low over the inner harbor when the Carmania started for the Chelses Docks and delayed her before she reached the North River, but lifted sufficiently a half hour later to let the Cedric catch up. When the Carmania came abeam of her pier, opposite West 13th street, and swung her nose around to enter her dock the strong flood tide caught her and carried her upstream James Bryce, British Ambassador to the inited States, who was a passenger on the 'edric, was met at the pier by Andrea 'arnegle and Courtenay Walter Bennett, British Consul General. Mr. Bryce had left his country just four months ago-on September 1-going first to Panama, and then proceeding down the west coast of South America. Most of the intervening time he pent in visiting the different countries of South America. With him vesterday were Mrs. Bryce and Miss Ashton, his nicce.

The author of "The American Common wealth" is now at work on a "History of American Economics," and, busy with his iew book, kept much to himself on the voyage across the Atlantic. He wished the puntry of his study a happy New Year vesterday when the reporters arrived; said he marvelled at the progress which Latin America had made, and thought he could see no prospect of trouble between Ecuador and Peru over the question of boundary He and his wife and niece went direct Washington, where they expect to attend to-day the reception at the White House and that of the Secretary of State. Mr. Carnegle, though not a passenger onsented to a brief interview. "I have no fears for the Republican party," said he; "and, of course, Taft will be the nominee in 1912."

With regard to his establishment of a German here fund he said all that he cared o say had already been printed. W. G. C. Gladstone, grandson of William

E. Gladstone, came over on the Cedric in he Bryce party to spend six months Washington as honorary attaché of the British Legation. Fellow passengers were Sir John and Lady Harrington. Sir John was formerly British Minister to Abyssinia and King Menelek's most confidential adviser. In the last election he was defeated nent held a New Year's reception at the for the House of Commons by John Burns. whom as Unionist candidate he opposed in the latter's stronghold, Battersea. The Lady Harrington was a daughter of the eral volumes dealing with Masonic history. late Senator MacMillan, of Michigan, She and her husband will visit her mother in

Lady Alastair, Captain J. E. Kirkpatrick, of the Queen's Own Canadian Rifles, and sisters, all of whom are on the stage. Miss rank of general. Dawn, who is a native of Ogden, Utah, monial performance to be given for Marcus abroad to take the leading part in "Gay Claudine," a play by Ivan Caryll and C

The Carmania brought to these shore the play never got nearer Broad- Frohman has promised them an Christmas trees in both first and second rabins and the distribution of presents among the children marked the celebration of Christmas on board. On New Year's Eve a concert was held in the saloon. New Year on the Cedric was ushered in with a bugle call.

the wives and children of the thirteen fire men and one policeman who sacrificed their lives for the sake of duty in the Bodine street are ten days ago by sending a check for $25,000 to the Citizens' Permanent Reand children of the dead men.

the committee that before the end of this week the $85,600 asked for will have been Company A, 45th Regiment, and for brav-

ASK WOMEN TO GIVE $25,000.

Mrs. Edmund L. Baylles, president of the veman's auxiliary of the Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association, announced the Queen Dowager Maria Pia, who has First Volume of His Work on Italian yesterday that the auxiliary was endeavoring to raise $25,000 as a contribution from the women of the city to the fund of $200,000 EARTHQUAKE IN ASIA MINOR by King Victor Emmanuel, entitled "Coring for the free service of the hospitals.

ganized, in 1857, its collections have grown from $1,600 to more than $12,000, but in order to realize the large sum which the growth in hospital requirements makes necessary the auxiliary is seeking a more general support from the women of the ity, and is urging that subscriptions in arge or small amounts be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. James Speyer, No. 257 Madison avenue.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY. admission to the American Museum of Vatural History and the Zoological Gar-

Aviation and Automobile Show, Grand Central

Palace, eption of meithers of West Side Young Men's Christian Association, No. 318 West 57th street, New York, 2 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Vale Dramatic Association in "Il Ventaglio, Waldorf-Astoria, evening. Lecture by Raymond Robins, "Jesus Christ and Social Responsibility," at the New Social Ideal Forum, 8:15 p. m. and Social Responsibility," at the New Social Ideal Forum, 8-15 p. m.

Board of Education public lectures, evening: Public School 5, 141st street and Edge-combe avenue, "The Children's Court," Ernest K. Couiter, Public School 46, 156th street and St. Nicholas avenue, "Rome To-day and Vesterday," Dr. Frank Crane, Public School 51, No. 523 West 44th street, "A Peep at Life in Africa," (harles Pittman, Public School 52, Nester and Eases streets, "Down the Riviera, "Arthur Stanier, Riggs, Public School 101, 111th atreet, west of Lexington avenue, "China," Guy Maine, Public School 118, 133d street and Eighth avenue, "The Maine Coast," Affred H. Lewis, Public School 135, First avenue and 51st street, "Economic and Political Conditions in the North and South," Dr. Arthur M. Wolfson, Public School 158, Avenue A and 7th street, "Stakespeare's Macbeth," Charles Burrowes, Public School 159, No. 241 East 11th street, "Spain," Louis F. Herry, Public School 156, 108th street and Amsterdam avenue, "John Milton," Dr. Willis Houghton, Public School 158, Lewis and East Houston streets, "The Panama (anal," Guy W Culgin, Public Library, No. 112 East 16th, street, "Russian Folk and Peasant Songs," Edward Bromberg, St. Luke's Hall, Hudson street, South of Christophor, "The Castle," C. Delisie Burns.

Bonfmen /Cobinson

IN THE MEAN TIME.

OBITUARY.

JOHN CORSON SMITH

Chicago, Jan. 1 .- John Corson Smith, one at widely known Masons of the country, died last night at his home here. aged seventy-eight years. He had been among the most active members of the Masonic order in the United States for many years, had held many honorary positions labor leader's plurality was only 1,200, in the order and was the author of sev-Mr. Smith was born in Philadelphia and moved to Illinois in 1854. When the Civil War broke out he enlisted as a private in Other Cedric passengers were Lord and the 74th Illinois, but later formed Company I, of the 96th Illinois Volunteers. He took part in many battles, was wounded, and Miss Hazel Dawn, one of a family of five before being mustered out attained the

He served as Lieutenant Governor of Illinois, as State Treasurer, Commissioner of the Centennial Exposition in 1876 and held several federal offices. A wife, three sons and a daughter survive him

CHARLES R. WEBSTER.

Charles R. Webster, an actor, died at his vated by an attack of the grip. He was who is intoring them. She is engaged at a member of the latter's famous St. Louis present with Miss S. Aguglia, the leading stock company. He made his last appear-The company was not in the best of the Alhambra, Eeventh avenue and 126th spirits on landing, for on Christmas Eve street. After the performance he had to tion of the hereditary basis, was in the air. southrette part, Sarah Buttinsky, has been a baby boy belonging to Mrs. E. Molnar, be assisted to his house. He leaves a wife The Premier's list of honors comprises assigned. Charles Cherry will appear as one of them, died. He was buried at sea and one son, Dr. C. G. Webster, of No. 371 East 200th street, The Bronx.

JOSEPH JEDLICKA

(By Telegraph to The Tribune. Sayville, Long Island, Jan. 1.-Joseph Jedlicka, the founder of the quaint Bohemian village of the Long Island Pines, STOTESBURY AIDS FIRE FUND Long Island. He was seventy-eight years old, and fifty-five years ago he erected the a way which cannot be excelled in artistry first house in the settlement. He was the and refinement. dest house in the sectionies.

projector of the American memorial monu-Families of Men Killed Recently.

Philadelphia, Jan. 1.—Edward T. Stotesbury, head of the banking firm of Drexel & Co., showed his sympathy yesterday for the wives and children of the Minner of the Mental of the Mental of the formation of the Mental of the American memorial monument to the Bohemian reformer. John Huss, and beside this shaft in the center at Bohemia Mr. Jedlicka's body will be laid to-morrow. Various Bohemian organizations in all parts of the country will be represented at the funeral.

"Kindly tell those admirable artists that I was more than pleased to be permitted to co-operate with them, and that it is my most sincere wish to be able to work with them again in New York in the not distant future.

GENERAL JOHN J. CURTIN. Bellefonte, Penn., Jan. 1.-General John I. urtin, one of the best known residents of Bellefonte, died suddenly from heart dishef Committee, to be added to the fund ease to-day, seventy-two years old. He which is being collected to aid the widows was a half-brother of the "War Governor" of Pennsylvania, Andrew G. Curtin. When This latest contribution increased the fund | the Civil War broke out he went to the o $72,972, and it is the beilef of members of front as a member of the Bellefonte Fencibles. Later he re-enlisted as captain of ery in action was promoted to the rank of brigadier general.

General Curtin is survived by two sons, Lieutenant Roland I. Curtin, of the United States navy, who fought in the Spanish-American War and who is now on duty at Annapolis, and Gregg Curtin, of New York.

MISS JULIA A. EASTMAN.

Wellesley, Mass., Jan. 1.-Miss Julia Arabella Eastman, founder and for eighteen Rome, Jan. 1.—The first volume of a work by King Victor Emmanuel, entitled "Corpus Nummorum Italicorum," has just been published. It is the first general catalogue of Italian mediæval and modern coins, with collected.

Since the woman's auxiliary was first or instructor, was the author of a number of lackbard, it bella Eastman, founder and 10 Eastman, founder and

FRANCIS A. HAYDEN.

Chicago, Jan. 1.-Francis A. Hayden author of a number of volumes on "Ancient Free and Accepted Masonry," died to-day at his home, aged seventy-six years. Mr. Hayden was made a thirty-three degree Mason in Washington, D. C., in 1896. He will be buried at his former home in Rome,

DR. GEORGE BULL. Paris, Jan. 1.-Dr. George Bull, a well known oculist, formerly of New York, died here to-day. He had been ill for a long DR. WILLIAM F. DAVIS DIES

Father of Treasury Official Was Kicked by Horse a Week Ago. Philadelphia, Jan. 1'.-Dr. William F Davis, a prominent resident of Dover, Del., died in a hospital here yesterday from injuries received a week ago, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. Davis, who was advanced in years, was the father of Frank H. Davis, Deputy Auditor of the Treasury Department at Washington. GIFTS TO WOOSTER UNIVERSITY

Chio Institution Receives $450,000 to Gain Appropriation of $150,000. Wooster, Ohlo, Jan. 1.-President Holden of Wooster University announced last night that $450,000 had been raised for the

DEDICATE FLATBUSH CHURCH Baptist Congregation Gets Letter from Mayor Gaynor.

Dedicatory services of the newly organ-zed congregation of the Flatbush Baptist Thurch, in Lenox Road, Flatbush, were eld in the church edifice yesterday afterized congregation of the Flatbush Baptist Church, in Lenox Road, Flatbush, were held in the church edifice yesterday after-It was expected that Mayor Gaynor would be present, but he sent word that he could not attend because of the condi-

The pastor, the Rev. George N. Spencer, spoke to a large congregation in the afternoon and to a still larger one in the even-Harold Phillips, the treasurer; Brayton

C. Case and Clarke Sutherland, the Sunday school superintendents; John B. Creighton and Daniel Perkins, one of the principal organizers of the new congregation, also made addresses at the services. Souvenir calendars were distributed and a luncheon was served by the women mem-

HUMPERDINCK PRAISES HERTZ

Expresses Gratitude for Orchestra's Work on Presentation of New Opera.

Professor Humperdinck, who will sail for Germany to-morrow, sent the following letter yesterday to Alfred Hertz, who conducted the first performance of "Königs artists under your leadership for the beautiful rendition of 'Königskinder." Express my gratitude to the splendid orchestra which interpreted the pages of my score in "Kindly tell those admirable artists that

"ENGELBERT HUMPERDINCK."

The Metropolitan Opera Company an-nounced yesterday that in order to enable the school children of the city to attend the performance of "Hansel und Gretel" with the Russian ballet, on Friday at the Metropolitan Opera House, the opera will begin at 2:30 p. m., instead of 2 o'clock as

COMMODORE M'CRACKIN ILL.

San Francisco, Jan. 1.-Commodore Alexander McCrackin, U. S. N., retired, is seriously ill at his home, having sustained a stroke of paralysis as a result of a nervous disorder. He was formerly in command of the West Virginia.

DIED.

Lockwood, George L. Ludington, Lavinia E. Maas, William B. Michaells, Harriet M. Myers, Lillan P. Pelree, Edward A. Sayhel, Charlotte A. K. Walker, Frances V. Wood, Emily.

BALBACH-On December 30, 1916, Edward Bajbach, fr., in his 72d year. Funeral notice hereafter.

BOOKHOUT-Edward Bookhout, December 29, in the 88th year of his age, at his late residence, Blidgewood, N. J. Funeral services at the First Presbyterian Church, Cranford, N. J., on Monday, January 2, on the arrival of the 10 a. m. train from New York. Interment private,

A. J., widow of the late James Davidson, of New York City, in her 86th year, at her resi-dence, No. 16 Hawthorne Place, East Orange, N. J. Notice of funeral hereafter. Chicago papers please copy.

DOREMUS—Entered into rest at his home, Montelair, N. J. on Friday, December 3a, Philip Doremus, in his 85th year. Funeral on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Trinity Presbytetian Church, Montelair, N. J. In-terment private. HANKINSON—December 31, Wilford M. Han-kinson, at his late residence. Services Wednes-day, 10:30 a. m., at the Funeral Church, 241 West 25d st. (Frank E. Campbell Building).

HANNAHS At East Orange N. J., on Saiurday, December 31, 1910, Ilelia, wife of the late William C. Hannahs, in the S4th year of her age. Funerai service will be held at the home of her son, Truman K. Hannahs, No. 90 Park ave. East Orange, N. J. on Tuesday, January 3, 1911, at 2 p. m. Interment at Rosedale Computery. HENNING-Friday night, December 30, Gus C Henning, beloved husband of Fanny Renning. Funeral services at his late residence. No. 413 Convent ave., Monday, January 2, 10

HUSSON Peacefully passed into rest Saturday evening, December 3t, 1910, Eliza L. Husson, Funeral service at her bite residence, No. 330 West 57th st. on Tuesday, January 3, at 19

JACKSON—On Sunday, January 1, 1911, at Philadelphia, Penn. Alice Reach Jackson, daughter of the late Joseph H. Jackson, In-terment at Rickhaway, N. J.

LEXOW—On December 30, Clarence Lexow, at his residence. Nyack, Rockland County, after a brief filmess. Interment Monday, January 2, 1911, at Oak Hill Comptery. Funeral priuniversity, thus meeting the condition imposed by the General Education Board of Manace Deforest and Annie C. Lockwood, in his twenty second year. Funeral services from his late residence, No. 3 East Wall street, Wednesday, January 4, 1911, at 3.30 p. m. Carriages will meet trains leaving New York.

LUDINGTON—At Carmel, N. Y., on Friday, De-cember 39, after a short illness, Lavinia E. Ludington, Gaughter of the late Lewis and Polly Townsend Lodington, Funcail at Car-mel N. Y., on Wednesday at 2:39 p. in.

MICHAELIS On January I, 1911, of one at Garden City, Long Island, Harriet Michaelis, wife of G. V. S. Michael daughter of the late Joseph Homan and Cony Munley, of Augusta, Me. Pleas flowers.

cember 30, 1910. Edward Augus husband of Caroline Walker Feli-services at his late residence. 2 32d st. Bayonne, N. J., Monday 8:15 o'clock. Interment in Thos Boston papers please copy.

WOOD-At Habylon, N. Y., December 31, 1910, Emily Wood, widow of the late Valentins Wood, in her 83d year. Funeral Tuesday, January 3, 1911, 11:30 a. m., at the residence of her son, Benjamin E. Wood. CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY "New York, New Year's Day.

"Dear Mr. Hertz: I cannot leave New Grand Central Station, Webster and Jecome Avenue trolleys and by carriage, Loss $150 up.

York without again thanking you and the Telephone 4835 Gramercy for Book of Views

Office, 20 East 23d St., New York City.

UNDERTAKERS. FRANK E. CAMPBELL, 241-S West 23d St.

SPECIAL NOTICES. NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

Mail Subscriptions, including postage, in the United States (outside of the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx, in Greater New York), Mexico, Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines and the following city in China: Shangbai. SUBSCRIPTION RATES

DAILY AND SUNDAY TRIBUNE: One Month 8.70 Six Months $4.00 Three Months 2.00 One Year 8.00 SUNDAY TRIBUNE: SIX Months S. 1.00 One Year DAILY TRIBUNE:
One Month S. 50 Six Months Three Months L.50 One Year TRIBUNE FARMER:
Six Months S. 50 One Year Less than six issues Daily (except day), 81.50 per year each issue. 82.00 $3,00 6,00

Foreign subscriptions to all countries in the Universal Postal Union, including | DAILY AND SUNDAY TRIBUNE:
| SUNDAY $5.64

SUNDAY TRIBUNE:
Six Months 82.82 One Year $5.64
DAULY TRIBUNE:
One Mouth $1.02 Six Months $6.13
Two Months 2.04 One Year 12.26
Three Months 2.07
TRIBUNE FARMER (Weekly):
Six Months $1.02 One Year $2.04
Less than six issues Daily (except Sunday), $2.54 per year each.

CANADIAN RATES.

DAILY AND SUNDAY:
Twelve Mos $10.08 Three Months $2.32
Six Months 5.64 One Month 59

Exercise Months $6.00 Three Months $1.50
Six Months 3.00 One Month 50
Six Months $1.00 Month 50

Exercise Months $1.08 Three Months $1.02
Six Months 2.04 One Month 45

Exercise Months $1.52 Three Months $1.38
Six Months 76 CANADIAN RATES.

OFFICES.

MAIN OFFICE-No. 154 Narsau street. WALL STREET OFFICE-No. 15 William street.
UPTOWN OFFICE—No. 1364 Broadway, or any American District Telegraph Office.
HARLEM OFFICES—No. 157 East 125th street,
No. 263 West 125th street, and No. 219 West 125th street.
WASHINGTON BUREAU Westery Building.
NEWARK BRANCH OFFICE Frederick N.
Sommer, No. 798 Broad street.
AMERICANS AUROAD will find THE TRIB-

UNE at BRITSELIS No. 62 Montague de la Cene BRITSELIS No. 62 Montague de la Cene LONDON Ordes of THE TRUBUNE, at Danes Inn House, No. 265 Strand American Express Company, No. 6 Hay-Thomas Cook & Son Tourist Office, Ludgate

Breits Shipley & Co., No. 123 Pall Mall, yer Brothers, No. 7 Lothbury, London office of THE TRIBUNE is a conplace to leave advertisements and sub-

Haussmann.

Haussmann.

Continental Hotel, Newsstand.

The Figaro Office.

Saarbach's News Exchange, No. 9 Rue St. George. Express Company, No. 11 Rue NUE Crédit Lyonnais. GENEVA Lombard, Odler & Co. and Union

GENEVA Lombard, Odler & Co. and Union Runk.
FLORENCE—French, Lemon & Co., Nos. 2 and 4 Via Ternabuent.
MSquay & Co., Rankers.
MILAN Saarbach's News Exchange, Via ia.
Monforte, 15A.
HAMBURG—American Express Company, So.
2 Alsterdamm.

eriptions.

PARIS—John Munro & Co., No. 7 Rue Scribe.

John Wannanaker, No. 44 Rue des Petites

Ecuries.

Eagle Burcau, No. 53 Rue Cambon.

Morgan. Harjes & Co., No. 82 Boulevard